

CLAUDIA PEDRERO

Claudia is building a practice in condo law spanning condo development and corporate governance. She also represents condo corporations in court proceedings and in dispute resolution.

Claudia believes in providing practical advice to help clients achieve their vision while staying cost-sensitive.

Her experience on the board of directors of a local community land trust also helps her bring real-world perspective to client service.

A former Vancouverite, Claudia takes great pleasure in the GTA's outdoor offerings - from cycling to hiking the ravines, and paddle boarding in the east end.
