

Christopher Zhao

Associate

Christopher Zhao is an associate lawyer at Lash Condo Law LLP. He has experience representing clients at multiple levels of court, including tribunals, Small Claims and Superior Court.

Christopher is dedicated to ensuring his clients achieve a fair and just outcome and has successfully represented his clients in both mediation and formal court proceedings.

When not practicing law, Christopher has been an active member of his community and has served as a board member of his condominium since turnover, providing him with invaluable insights into the complexities of condominium governance and disputes. His practical experience extends to negotiating shared facilities disputes and navigating the performance audits and TARION warranty process.

Outside the courtroom, Christopher is an avid cyclist who loves conquering scenic routes and testing his endurance on long rides. In fact, he swears that dodging potholes on a bumpy trail has prepared him perfectly for navigating the twists and turns of condominium disputes. Whether he's shifting gears in a sprint finish or in a heated board meeting, Christopher knows that balance, resilience, and the occasional snack break are key to crossing any finish line.
